Will was Maria's first tutor; the author of a bestselling Law textbook, so Maria knew she was in safe hands. They began by ensuring her CLT knowledge was up to scratch. They did this by going through past papers to identify Maria's weaknesses, then targeting those weak areas with more focused questions.

Bianca was Maria's next tutor; Bianca went through every single aspect of the personal statement with her. Bianca firstly gave constructive feedback and showed Maria several personal statements that had been previously successful in applying for the M100 Law course at Cambridge. This helped Maria to see that qualities that her own statement was lacking. Together they went through Maria's past experiences in work experience and other qualities that really set her apart from others. Bianca was always available to help Maria and Maria made use of the unlimited re-drafts available to her after booking tuition. After some sessions her statement was in a very good spot!

The next stage of her tuition was with Orin. Orin, with UniAdmissions arranged for Maria to be put through her paces with multiple mock interviews held with different tutors. Each tutor wrote extensive detailed feedback about her strengths and weaknesses. Orin then went through this feedback with Maria. They worked together to improve her responses to common questions such as "Why do you want to study Law at Cambridge?". This ensured Maria understood the way of thinking that Cambridge admissions tutors have - all of this preparation ended up being worth it when Maria got her perfect offer from Cambridge!

"I couldn't have done it without UniAdmissions. Orin was a godsend when it came to interviews, I really appreciate all the work she put in to help me."
